"CONTEMPTIBLE FORGERY."

Democratic Infamy.

Circulating a Base Forgery After Its Exposure.

While the Bangor Commercial, Portland

Arms and the other organs of Democracy continue to circulate and declare guiltless what they know to be a shameless forgery, the New York Sun strongly denounces as it thus denounces the infamous fraud.

Nothing could argue a poorer cause than to attempt to support it by forgery.

Forgery technically, the manufacture of the letter falsely attributed to him, it cannot constitute that crime, and the violation of criminal law against the maker who afterwards called Gen. Garfield a liar because he denied the authorship cannot be maintained if he can be proven legally, no person more rightly deserves to pay the severest of penaltities.

THE DEMOCRATIC MANAGER DISMISSED.

[From the New York Herald, Jan.]

"We have no doubt of what the public at large will say it will with the 'L'ral' accept Garfield's denial as final and conclusive upon the matter. But will it also hold Democratic managers to their responsibility for what now appears to be a for-geable forgery? Public opinion will hold and justly hold, that man who 'speaks' handily and others owed it to their own characters and to the common decencies of life to be somewhat slower in bearing witness, and a good deal more careful than they have been, before allowing themselves, for parties, to become partners in a gross fraud on the public.

The forgery has been industriously used in the Democratic campaign, and the Democratic managers to their responsibility against the Republican bandit which it was well calculated to do. Will they now be equally industrious in circulating a circular, signed by Garfield, in which he accuses the Democratic managers who would like to be thought honorable men than the forgery of the public in a forgery on a forgery?

"No Fusion With Democrats."

[From the Washington Organ of the Greenback

Party.]

"The Nationalist has just published with the other parties. It has been true to its price policy and to its standard while, heart-faithful men have gone over to Hancock, or sold themselves for a price the price has not for one moment faltered.

No stock was taken in the popularity of Hancock. No stock was placed in the Democratic promise of love for the working man.

With the possibility of William H.

English before them as President of the Senate and acting President of the United States let every Greenbacker hold his ballot as the weapon by which this embroilment of incoherent adhesiongreed and inhumanity may be averted.

that the duties levied for the protection of revenue should be dis-labor."

GEN. GARFIELD'S LETTER OF AC-

CEPTANCE.

"In reference to our Customs laws a policy should be pursued which will bring revenues to the Treasury, and will enable the labor and capital employed in our great industries to compete fairly in our own markets with the labor and capital of foreign producers.

We legislate for the people of the United States and not for the whole world; and it is our glory that the American laborer is more intelligent and better paid than his foreign competitors. Our country cannot be independent unless its people, with their abundant natural resources, possess the requisite skill at any time to clothe, arm and equip themselves for war, and in time of peace to produce all necessary implements of labor."

Senator Blaine's Letter to an Irishman.

Bangor, Oct. 29th 1880.

[The subject of the letter from Senator

Blaine was written to one of the most prominent and influential Irish citizens in East of Maine. He does not desire his name to appear but he sends the letter to the WHIG AND COURIER for publication.]

MURPHY, Me. Oct. 27, 1880.

My Dear Sir: I received your friendly letter of the 24th inst. and am glad to reply to it. The course of your and other Irish voters is one of the most extraordinary anomalies in our political history. Never probably since the execution of Robert Emmet, has the feeling of Irishmen, the world over, been so rightly directed and so Englishmen as it is at this hour. And yet the great mass of the Irish voters in the United States, who on Sunday last voted so freely for the Democratic ticket, are precisely an English man would have them vote for the interest of England.

Having seen England reduced to misery and driven to despair by what they regard as the policy of England, the Irish man of America use their suffrage as though they were the agents and servants of the English Tories. The free traders of England do nothing so much as the policy of the United States, who

est of England.
